

ANNUAL REPORT:
GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL AGAINST SEXUAL HARASSMENT
2021-22

INTRODUCTION:

This annual report highlights the institution's efforts and policies for addressing grievances related to sexual harassment during the reporting period. We are proud to state that during this period, there were no reported grievances of sexual harassment, which is a testament to the effectiveness of our comprehensive policy and commitment to maintaining a safe and respectful campus environment.

POLICY AND INITIATIVES:

Our institution has a well-defined policy to address grievances against sexual harassment, which includes the following key initiatives:

Preventive Measures: We have implemented various preventive measures, including awareness campaigns, workshops, and seminars to educate students and staff about sexual harassment, its consequences, and the institution's zero-tolerance stance.

Internal Complaints Committee (ICC): Our institution has a dedicated Internal Complaints Committee comprising impartial members who are trained to handle complaints with sensitivity and confidentiality.

Accessible Reporting Channels: We provide multiple channels, including a helpline number, email address, and complaint boxes, to ensure that any individual can report incidents comfortably and securely.

Awareness and Training: We conduct regular awareness and training programs to sensitize the college community about sexual harassment issues, ensuring a proactive approach in prevention.

Strict Action Against Offenders: Our policy ensures that any proven cases of sexual harassment will lead to appropriate disciplinary actions against the offenders, adhering to legal and institutional guidelines.

NO REPORTED GRIEVANCES:

During the reporting period, we are pleased to share that there were no reported grievances related to sexual harassment. This achievement underscores the effectiveness of our policy and the positive campus culture that fosters respect and dignity for all individuals.

CONCLUSION:

The absence of reported grievances against sexual harassment during the reporting period reflects the success of our institution's well-defined policy and proactive initiatives. Our commitment to maintaining a safe and inclusive environment continues to be a priority, and we will sustain our efforts to raise awareness, educate, and provide support to all members of our college community.

ANNUAL REPORT: GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL AGAINST SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Reporting Period: Session 2020-21

INTRODUCTION:

This annual report outlines the institution's endeavours and policies for addressing grievances related to sexual harassment during the challenging period of the academic session 2020-21, characterized by the COVID-19 lockdown. The majority of the time during this session, the college remained closed due to the pandemic. Despite the extraordinary circumstances, we remained committed to providing a safe and supportive environment for all, with a strong focus on preventing and addressing sexual harassment incidents.

POLICY AND INITIATIVES:

During the session 2020-21, our institution continued to implement the following key initiatives to address grievances against sexual harassment:

Preventive Measures: Despite the lockdown and limited physical presence on campus, we conducted virtual awareness campaigns, webinars, and online workshops to educate students and staff about sexual harassment prevention and our zero-tolerance policy.

Internal Complaints Committee (ICC): The Internal Complaints Committee remained active, with members accessible remotely to handle any complaints and concerns related to sexual harassment.

Virtual Reporting Channels: We ensured that reporting channels, such as a dedicated helpline number and email address, remained operational for students and staff to report incidents confidentially.

Online Training: We organized virtual training sessions for members of the college community to raise awareness about sexual harassment and equip them with knowledge about redressal mechanisms.

Remote Support and Guidance: Despite the challenges of the lockdown, we continued to provide support, counseling, and guidance to individuals who sought assistance regarding sexual harassment issues.

IMPACT OF LOCKDOWN:

The COVID-19 lockdown during the session 2020-21 significantly impacted the college's physical operations, resulting in limited opportunities for in-person interactions. However, we continued to adapt and prioritize the safety and well-being of our college community by ensuring that our grievance redressal mechanisms remained accessible and operational through virtual platforms.
